LOCATION

The property is within an exclusive development of five other newly refurbished houses set in the village of Mynytho. The rural village is located on the southern coast of the Llyn Peninsula set in an elevated position above Abersoch and Llanbedrog enjoying un-surpassed sea views over Abersoch and the surrounding coastline with the Cambrian Mountains visible on the far side of the bay. The village has a shop/post office, primary school and community hall, all within walking distance.

Abersoch is officially an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty and a treasure of a place to locals and visitors alike. The Llyn Peninsula is very much dominated by its landscape, a magical mix of unspoilt countryside, majestic mountains and miles of stunning coastline and sandy beaches. Abersoch is renowned as the 'jewel in the crown' of the Llyn Peninsula and attracts visitors from around the country, keen to enjoy the Gulf Stream influenced micro climate of the Peninsula. Abersoch has many restaurants, bars, bistros and specialist shops.

The South Caernarfonshire Yacht Club (SCYC) is the place to be if you want to sail dinghies or keelboats in Cardigan Bay. The thriving club has many members but also welcomes visitors, particularly to their established open events – Dinghy, Mirror and Keelboat Weeks.

For golfers, Abersoch's challenging 18-hole links/parkland course. Near by are Nefyn, Pwllheli and Porthmadog courses.

No.1 is a true rarity to the market, set in an elevated position with sea views to the front elevation towards Abersoch, St Tudwals Islands and Cardigan Bay. In a quiet location with off-road parking, it is within an easy walk of Mynytho village shop/post office and all within a short 3 mile drive of Abersoch with its array of shops, restaurants and miles of sandy beaches.

DESCRIPTION

Number 1 Bryn Hedd is an attractive generously proportioned family home, measuring about 1,614 sq.ft/150 sq.m (Gross Internal) constructed of white rendered elevations punctured by large UPVC double glazed windows with dressed stone quoins all surmounted by a slate roof.

This wonderful family home has just been the subject of a complete renovation scheme, in effect making it like a new home. The interior has benefitted from a total refit with modern, cutting edge and contemporary interior with a flexible modern day layout.

The spacious accommodation is laid out over two floors with living to the first floor and most bedrooms to the ground floor. Affectionally known as an 'upside down house' to maximise the views from the living room.

Located on the first floor, sits the expansive living room with two sets of French doors leading out onto a balcony allowing for full enjoyment of the sea views and the other well-presented houses in this small and exclusive development. The first floor living room is open plan with a newly fitted kitchen and has a landing leading to bedroom 4 with ensuite shower.

The ground floor is equally well presented, with the master bedroom having French doors leading out onto a patio area where far reaching sea views can be enjoyed. Accessed off the master bedroom is a good sized newly fitted shower room. There are two further double bedrooms and well proportioned newly fitted family bathroom room with separate shower. There is also a utility room off the main hall.

Outside there are enclosed gardens laid to lawn with a terrace to enjoy the sea views, garden room and parking.

The detached garden room offers a versatile space for numerous uses; home office, play room, home cinema or gym.
